

UNIVERSITÄT
LEIPZIG

Akademisches Auslandsamt | AAA

You want to study at Leipzig University, but your German isn't good enough yet? Leipzig University offers free German language courses for refugees as a preparation for university studies, which start in October 2018. The course period is six to nine months and the courses lead to the language level C1. An acceptance test will be held in September.

What do I need in order to take part in a course? - knowledge of the German language, level B1 - a direct university admission qualification (secondary school certificate or first university degree) - specification of your preferred study programme at Leipzig University

Where can I apply? - Please apply via uni assist e.V.:

- 1) For the application, it is necessary to prove a TestAS (Test for Academic Studies - www.refugees.testas.de) or a 'Beratungsschein' (obtainable after presenting your certificates in a counselling during our office hours).
- 2) After a successful registration with uni-assist you can apply for the 'German language course for refugees'. You can find a detailed description of the application process here: www.uni-leipzig.de/+uni-assist-refugees
